Sasha dolls

A Rare Opportunity To Own A Vintage Classic

Swiss artist Sasha Morgenthaler (1893-1975) had a vision to create dolls reflecting the spirit of children of all races and cultures during their age of innocence. Her five-way jointed, vinyl play dolls became an instant success enchanting people with their unique design and universal appeal. English company Frido/Trendon and Götz of Germany both produced these dolls during the mid-to-late 1900s. No longer produced, today's collectors truly prize their beloved "Sasha" dolls!
